- Free package on the www.Tubefirst.com directory website
- Special value exhibitor packages at major industry trade fairs in prime locations
- Free hospitality, office, interpreter and communication services at all major tube exhibitions
- Free entry ticket for Tube Düsseldorf and Free catalogue at Tube Southeast Asia exhibition
- Free listing on the ITA website with hyperlinks to your own website
- Invaluable practical local advice on attending major tube exhibitions
- Be part of the world's largest and most influential membership association of tube and pipe engineers and other industry professionals

The low annual membership fee could make a world of difference for your company to enjoy world class support around the globe and much more like Dr Svetlana Mamkina, Nexus-Europe GmbH, Germany:

"I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for the fine work of the International Tube Association. I cannot overstate its usefulness to me as a member. Truly international in its scope, the ITA provides me with wonderful opportunities to connect with like-minded people the world over and to stay current with ever changing technologies and industry trends, no matter where they emanate from".

To join for just US$250/€187*/£160 per year, US$450/€337*/£288 for 2 years or US$625/€468*/£400 for three years please complete and return the application form by fax or email to ITA head office on the reverse page or apply online at www.itatube.org where you can see a list of the worldwide organisations with ITA members.
